

Being on both the federal and the state of Indiana's no call list I strongly oppose the weaking of the Indiana no call list by the challange of the Consumer Banking Association. This is a free society if I choose to do business with someone I will contact them. No one should be able to invade the privacy of my home to sell me their goods or services. Thank you.